Jason C. Moore

Vice President Business Development

Jason Moore is Vice President of Business Development for Rodgers, a Charlotte-based construction management firm consistently ranked among the top 100 in the nation. With more than 28 years of experience in commercial construction, Jason is known for cultivating strong client relationships, guiding pursuit strategies, and advancing projects that create lasting community impact.

Experience

Jason joined Rodgers in 2015 and brings nearly three decades of expertise spanning business development, project planning, and client engagement. Throughout his career, he has positioned firms for long-term success by:

- Developing strong partnerships across healthcare, education, civic, and commercial sectors.
- Leading pursuit strategies that have resulted in award-winning, large-scale projects.
- Building trust with owners, architects, and community stakeholders through a collaborative, results-driven approach.

Prior to Rodgers, Jason held senior leadership roles in regional construction firms where he strengthened his ability to align business development strategy with operational excellence and organizational growth.

Education

Jason received his B.S. degree in Political Science from Appalachian State University.

Leadership

Jason is actively engaged in industry and community leadership. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Associated Builders and Contractors (Carolinas Chapter), where he is also a member of the Government Affairs Committee and the Charlotte Regional Leadership Council. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the Construction Professionals Network (CPN).
